DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10-6-2005 has been entered.

2. Claims 1-79 are pending in this application and have been examined.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-79 are allowed.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art in the field, Rescorla et al. "The Secure Hypertext Transfer Protocol" Network Working Group, Request for Comments (RFC) 2660, August 1999, when read singly and in reasonable combination with the other prior art in the field, does not teach the features found in the independent claims of:

As for claims 1, 14, 28, 67, 72, and 77, a computer-readable program code, method, and system for piggy-backing a first portion of a security information comprising a response to a request from a client for a message encoding scheme, onto a second message from a server, and subsequently sending a second portion of a security information piggy-backed onto a third message from the client to the server, and a third portion of a security information sent on a fourth message from the server to the client, all in combination with the other claim limitations.

As for claims 42, 51, 58, 65, 70, and 75, selecting by a server application without using information from, or prearranged with a client application, a message encoding scheme responsive to a content request from the client, all in combination with the other claim limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
